MILITARY HERITAGE MUSEUM NAMED “BEST OF FLORIDA” BY FLORIDA GUIDE

PUNTA GORDA, FL - The Military Heritage Museum in Punta Gorda has been officially recognized as Best of Florida by the Guide to Florida, an honor that reflects the museum’s dedication to preserving and sharing the heroic stories of America’s veterans.

This prestigious recognition highlights the museum as one of Florida’s premier cultural and educational institutions, bringing national-level programming and exhibits to the heart of Southwest Florida.

“We are deeply thankful for our loyal donors, supporters, and volunteers who make this honor possible,” said Isaac James, Executive Director of the Military Heritage Museum. “Our amazing veteran volunteers bring incredible stories to life for every visitor, our dedicated staff has truly raised the bar of excellence, and together we ensure that the heroic sacrifices of our nation’s service members are never forgotten. I am so proud of the Military Heritage Museum team and the responsibility we’ve been entrusted with - to share the stories of our veterans and to showcase our military heritage for generations to come.”

The museum continues to expand its reach with innovative exhibits, live programming at the Gulf Theater, and educational initiatives that inspire and engage both residents and visitors. With veterans serving as docents and storytellers, every visit becomes a living history experience.

As Southwest Florida grows as a cultural hub, the Military Heritage Museum stands as a beacon of honor, remembrance, and education.

The Military Heritage Museum is located at 900 West Marion Avenue in Punta Gorda. For more information or reservations, please go to the website and sign up at www.militaryheritagemuseum.org or call 941-575-9002.
